

FLORIDA FRANCE SOLDIER STORIES

UCF

James Louis Huggins

1921 – 1945

Private: US Army

254th Infantry Regiment, 63rd Infantry Division

This Florida France Soldier Stories (FFSS) source packet contains digitally available sources documenting the life of a US Army soldier who served in Eastern France during World War II. The Memorial Museum of the Liberation of the Colmar Pocket preserves some of his personal items in its unique archival collection.

In this ongoing partnership, UCF history students conduct research as part of the FFSS project to assist the dedicated staff at the Museum. Our goal is simple yet profound: to help visitors connect with the events of the war and the individuals who lived them—bridging the distance between past and present and between the US and France.

Please note some news articles published online exist behind paywalls and require a subscription for digital access. We have provided links and text excerpts but have not reproduced the images. Similarly, remembrance pages include photos. Again, we have provided links, when applicable, but have not reproduced images without express written permission.

1930 Federal Census

In 1930, we see that John had married Rose, purchased a home in Baltimore, MD, and started a family. 9-year-old James had a younger sister, Rose. John still worked as a wallpaper installer, and his brother, Arthur, lived with the family, working in a bookstore.

En 1930, on constate que John avait épousé Rose, acheté une maison à Baltimore (Maryland), et fondé une famille. James, âgé de 9 ans, avait une petite sœur, Rose. John travaillait toujours comme poseur de papier peint, et son frère, Arthur, vivait avec leur famille et travaillait dans une librairie.

Early Life

1940 Federal Census

In 1940, 18-year-old James and his family still lived in the same house on Monroe Ave. they had lived in for over a decade. He had 2 younger siblings, Rose and John F (Fred). After completing 4 years of high school, James worked in the airplane industry as a draughtsman [draftsman], someone who creates technical drawings and blueprints.

En 1940, James, alors âgé de 18 ans, vivait toujours avec sa famille dans la même maison, avenue Monroe, où ils habitaient depuis plus de dix ans. Il avait 2 frères et sœurs plus jeunes, Rose et John F. (Fred). Après avoir terminé ses quatre années de lycée, James a travaillé dans l'industrie aéronautique en tant que dessinateur technique, chargé de réaliser des dessins et des plans techniques.

63rd Infantry Division Combat Narrative

Advanced elements of the division arrived in Marseille France on 8 Dec 44, trained at Haguenau, and organized as Task Force Harris to protect the east flank of the drive on the Rhine. It defended the Vosges and Maginot Line area 22–30 Dec 44 and battled the German offensive south of Bitche 1–19 Jan 45. The rest of the division closed in Marseille France 14 Jan 45 and the division assembled at Willerswald on 2 Feb 45 as Task Force Harris was discontinued. The division conducted patrolling activity until 15 Feb 45 when the 255th Inf attacked the Bois de Blies Brucken and the 253rd Inf fought the Battle for Auersmacher 17–19 Feb 45. The division completed the reduction of the Welferding salient with the capture of Buebingen and Bliesransbach 24 Feb 45.

The division renewed its attacks 3 Mar 45 as the 253rd Inf battled through heavily defended forest to Hahnsbusch 3–5 Mar 45. The division attacked the West Wall near Saarbruecken on 15 Mar 45 and took Fechingen, Eschringen, and Ennheim. After heavy combat the division breached a gap in the West Wall north of the latter town on 18 Mar 45. With the fall of St Ingbert and Hassel to 255th Inf on 20 Mar 45, the West Wall was pierced. After a brief rest, the division crossed the Rhine at Neuschloss on 28 Mar 45 and relieved the 44th Inf Div, crossing the Neckar in the Wieblingen area 30 Mar 45 and reaching Heidelberg. The division continued to advance behind the 10th Armd Div and fought through the region north of the Jagst River 3 Apr 45. The 253rd forced the river in the Griesheim-Herbolzheim region on 4 Apr 45 and fought house-to-house in Moeckmuehl. After frontal assaults against Hardenhauser Forest failed, the division enveloped the woods by 7 Apr 45. The 255th Inf reached the Kocher River and established a bridgehead at Weissbach 9 Apr 45.

The Kocher River bridgehead was expanded against strong German opposition and the 10th Armd Div attacked out of it 11 Apr 45. The division mopped up in that area and consolidated 14 Apr 45, returning to the attack the next day as it took Schwaebisch Hall with armored support by 18 Apr 45. The division seized the Rems Bridge at Unt Boebingen on 22 Apr 45 and leapfrogged battalions to reach the Danube River 25 Apr 45. The 254th Inf crossed the river on a damaged bridge in Riedheim and repulsed a German armored counterattack. The division was relieved 28 Apr 45 and withdrawn from the line. It was assigned security duty from the Rhine to Darmstadt and Wurzburg on a line to Stuttgart and Speyer, and was in this mode when hostilities were declared ended on 7 May 45.

Private Huggins Is Killed; 40 Md. Men Wounded

According to information released today by the Office of War Information and families of men in the service, one Maryland man has been killed, one is reported missing, and 40 have been wounded.

All of the casualty reports are based on prior notification to next of kin. In case of divergence between this list and information sent to the next of kin, the last War or Navy Department telegram or letter received is the final authority.

Killed

HUGGINS, JAMES L., private, husband of Mrs. Vivian Huggins, 1021 North Monroe Street.

Private Huggins, 23, was killed in action in France the early part of February, two weeks after he had been overseas. He joined the Army in July, 1944, and was with the 254th Infantry.

In a letter received yesterday by his mother, she was informed that he had been buried in a Catholic Cemetery in France.

Private Huggins was a graduate of Polytechnic Institute, and prior to entering the service, had worked at the Glenn L. Martin plant. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Huggins, reside at the Monroe street address.

Transcription of news from The Morning Sun

On March 21, 1945, Baltimore's The Morning Sun reported James' death and the injuries of 40 other Maryland soldiers. Vivian, his wife, likely told the paper that James had graduated from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute and worked at the Glenn L. Martin aircraft manufacturing facility before joining the military.

Le 21 mars 1945, le journal The Morning Sun de Baltimore a annoncé le décès de James et a fait état de blessures subies par 40 autres soldats du Maryland. Vivian, son épouse, a probablement déclaré au journal que James était diplômé de l'Institut polytechnique de Baltimore et qu'il avait travaillé à l'usine aéronautique Glenn L. Martin avant de s'engager dans l'armée.
